47. Defendants have duly demanded appraisal proceedings to determine the amount of loss, which would resolve all issues in controversy, and bar this suit.

AS AND FOR A THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

48. The applicable policies of insurance provide that legal action may not be brought unless there is full compliance with all the terms of the applicable policies of insurance.

49. Plaintiffs failed to comply with applicable policy terms and conditions.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

50. The applicable policies of insurance require that the plaintiff cooperate with the insurers' investigation of the claim, including producing for examination all books of account, records, invoices, bills, vouchers, bills of lading, packing lists, duty reports, delivery receipts, non-delivery claims, claims against transporting carriers, statements of claim, certificates of insurance, repair bills, surveyors' certificates, correspondence, reports and information relevant to the loss or damage, and the like.

51. Plaintiffs failed to cooperate with the insurers' investigation of the claim.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

52. Plaintiffs spoliated evidence material and necessary to support their claim and to defend this action, particularly certain business records, which they knew or reasonably should have known would be pertinent to the claim.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

53. Plaintiffs have failed to perform and satisfy the conditions precedent to commencing suit.

WHEREFORE, Defendants pray for dismissal of the Complaint in its entirety, for fees and costs, and for such other further and different relief as the Court deems just and proper.
